

BrainStorm Ideas For interactive terminal

Idea #1 (ALONE)

you wake up in your bed, everything is normal and going well.. Once you leave your house you realize there is no traffic or any cars for that matter. you go on with your day and keep noticing everything is super empty. you go to populated areas and stores and no one is around.. you are alone choices include going to places you always wanted to go, stay in fear and search for any other life

Idea #2 (A New home) (Space Game)

you are exploring space and on a mission to a newly discovered planet. you land on this planet and your ship starts to malfunction. you need to figure out how to survive.

choices include - Leaving the ship behind and exploring the alien planet, - inspect the ships damage and try to fix the unknown malfunction.

you are heading towards a newly discovered planet you land and your ship malfunctions and breaks you look outside and have the option to go out and explore or sit still and work on your ship to send a distress signal. if you go out and explore you find an alien that is super nice and invites you to his tribe in his cave and live a life with aliens or he can fix your ship so you can go home

Idea #3 - Ocean Game

You are a fish exploring the ocean, you must choose what group of fish you join to hunt and play with. You get to choose your color and what kind of fish you are. Different foods you eat make you bigger or kill you.

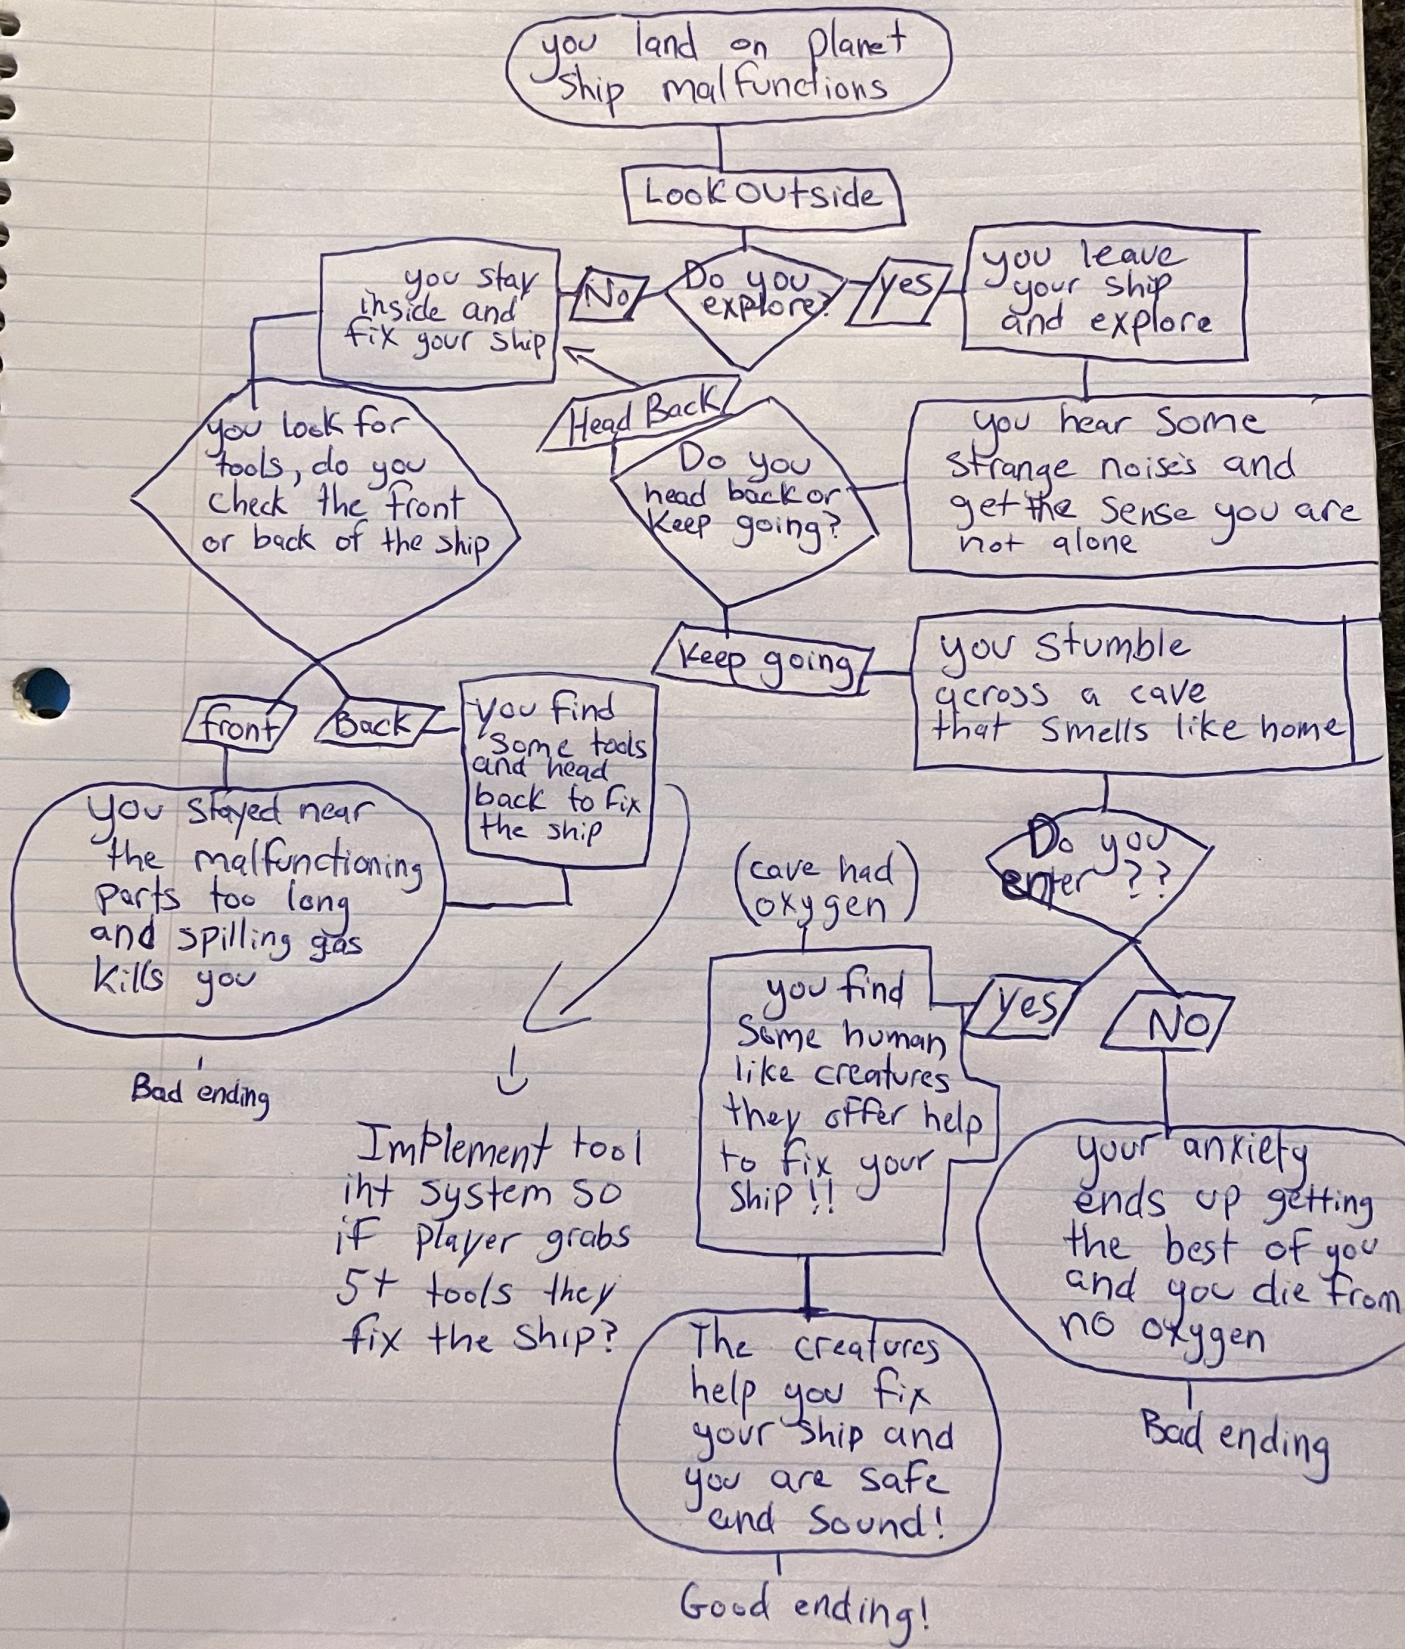

Idea #4 - You are a young child exploring a cave, options would follow easy choices like left, right, up, down. Choose between torch or lantern? Choose to make friends with ghosts along the way?

?> Idea 5 - Wizard game where you choose what kind of magic you use, fire, ice, water, ect. Fight villians and choose to be good or evil.

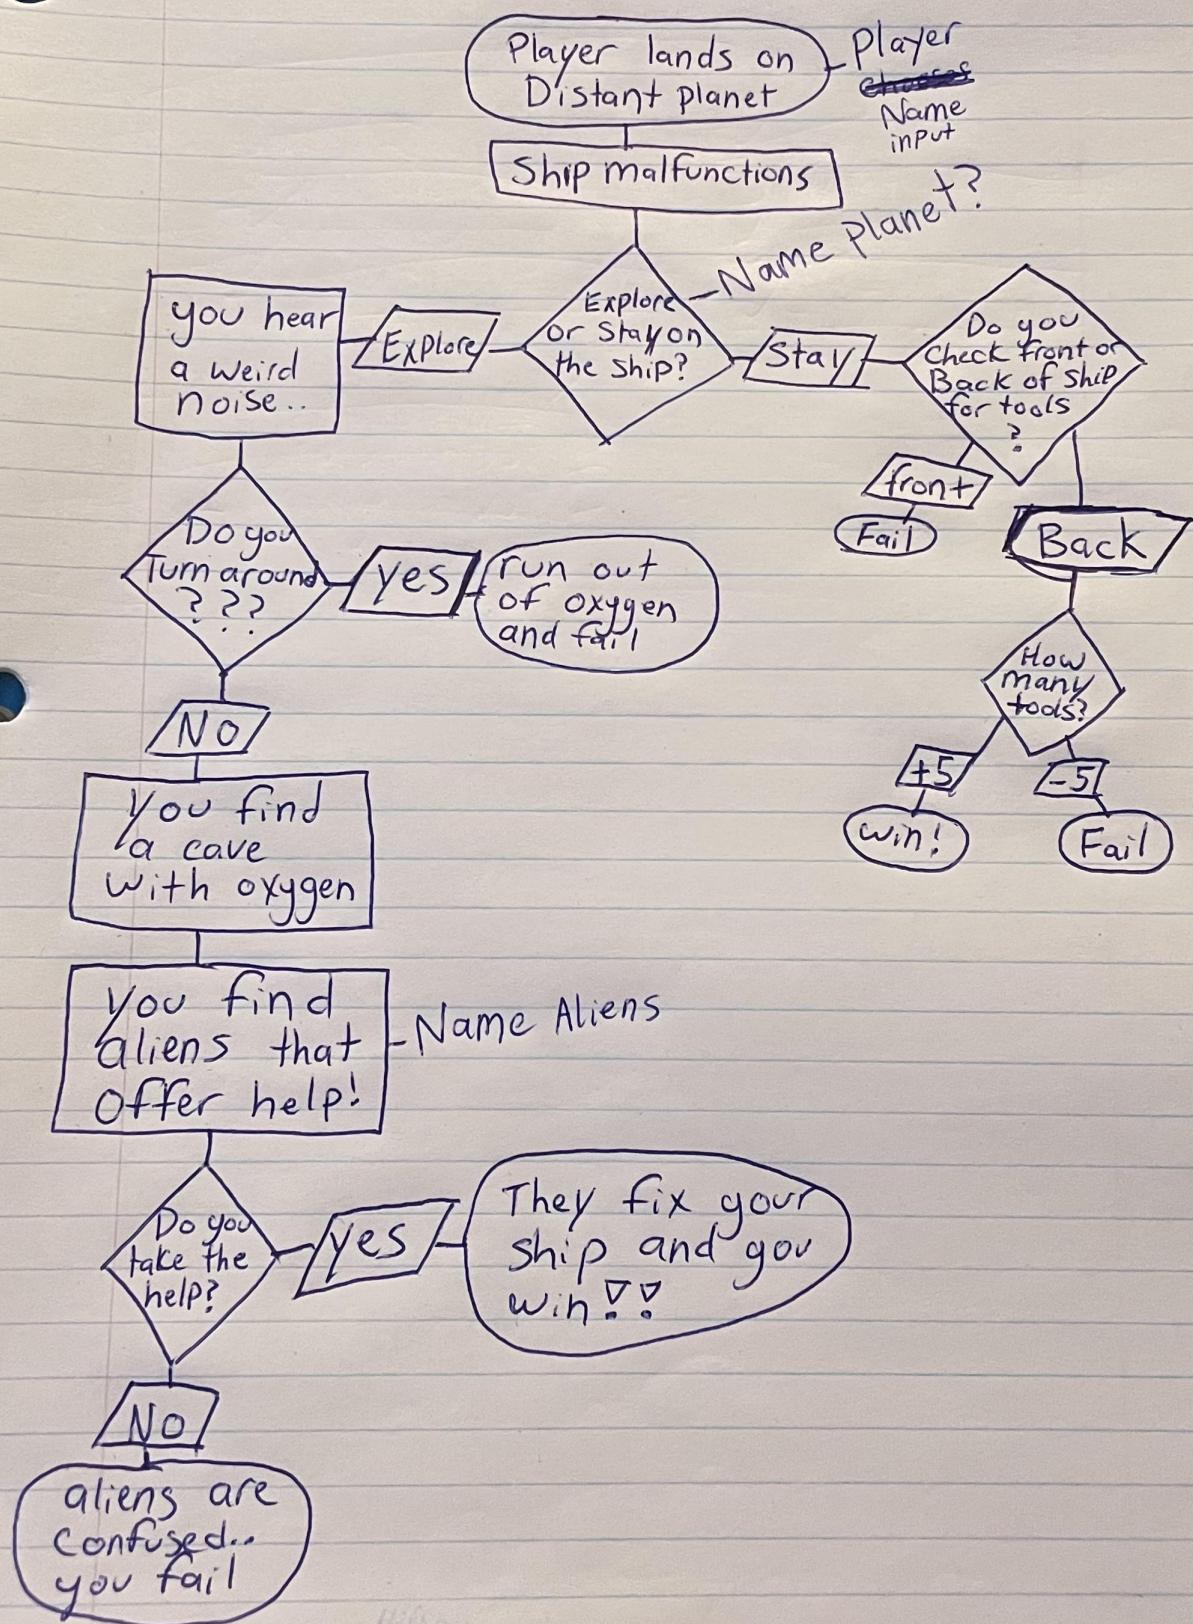

~~Evil~~ If you chose evil you have to kill your friends you made along the way with magic. run from "Wizard Police"
